HarvestLab™ Software Update V142 Release Notes

Important Notes:

This software is updating your HarvestLab™ 3000 sensor to version V142.

To perform the software update, please download the software bundle from StellarSupport™ at HarvestLab™ section. To connect the HarvestLab™ 3000 sensor with your Laptop, you must use an Ethernet cable (PFP16262: Ethernet Cable (M12 to RJ45)). Please follow the steps on HarvestLab™ web UI to update the software. (https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=atQQGueHYJY&feature=youtu.be)

Release Notes:

Date	Software	Version
December 2021	John Deere Harvestlab™ 3000 sensor	V142

V142

- Added support that grain sensing calibration could be used on HarvestLab 3000 stationary
- Added the sample id to measurement reports.
- Support of new constituents within Grass calibration 2021
- Removed feature to reference sensor with KJD10569 and KJD10569A.
- Improved external reference by warming up HarvestLab sensor
- Improved configuration page in web UI for saving spectra.
- Added support for sending external reference status to display.
- Updated of white reference certificates to 2021-10-20.
- Improved performance for downloading saved spectra.
- Improved external refence with one external reference needed or all machine application

Note: A refresh of the browser is needed after installation of software update V142.